

SECRET STAFFING

YOU HAVE A NEED TO KNOW - SECRET STAFFING HAS ARRIVED!

Not just another staffing service, Secret Staffing understands the classified world and the people who operate within it. We represent the highly cleared and highest qualified candidates to the Intelligence Community job market. Our specialized focus and expertise within the IC offers our clients an unparalleled level of service and results.

Intelligence Community Focus

We understand. Dealing with staffing agencies can sometimes be a challenge when they don't have an understanding of the IC. Our customers know that we only operate within the Intelligence Community job market. As a result, our knowledge and understanding of this unique job market is unsurpassed. We know the hot programs and customers, and the differences between agencies. That means saving you valuable time by knowing what to focus on in your search, and what matters most.

Proprietary Talent Pool

Our exclusive and proprietary database of cleared and screened professionals represents the best in the industry. It was built from within, over a period of 10 years, and has been continually mined and updated. The result is a highly guarded resource of cleared talent like no other. Our specialized teams of search consultants are ready to deliver this resource to you!

Security Clearance Experts

When you finally find a candidate with the right technical skills, that last thing you want is the wrong clearances. We are experts in navigating the many intricacies of government security clearances and will ensure that our candidates have the correct access to match our client's needs.

Customized and Innovative Pricing Plans

All customers are different and so are their staffing needs. Contact one of our search consultants to help you build a customized staffing plan that is right for you. We offer customized Success Fee and Temp-to-Perm Plans, as well as a unique approach, which lowers your cost-per-hire and delivers results. By linking the services of our sister division at TransQuest Federal Systems, Secret Staffing can reduce your program staffing costs significantly, and provide additional sub-contracting participation on your critical programs.

Secret Staffing stands out as the premier resource for recruiting services within the Intelligence Community.
